1. The basic objective of the BScHS programme is to provide to the country a steady stream of competent young men and women with the necessary knowledge, skills, values and attitudes to occupy positions of management and administration in the Hospitality Industry.
2. The course structure of the given BScHS programme is designed keeping in view the basic objective stated above. Consequently certain essential features of such model programme structures would be
 - a. To impart to the students latest and relevant knowledge from the field of management theory and practice.
 - b. Providing opportunities to the participants, within and outside the institutions, for developing necessary operating skills and
 - c. Imparting / developing the right kind of attitudes to function effectively in operational, managerial / administrative positions.
3. Certain other essential considerations:
 - a. The knowledge inputs and opportunities for skill development have been offered in an evenly distributed and logically sequenced manner.
 - b. The design is simple and logical.
4. Imparting / developing suitable attitudes understandably is a very difficult and delicate task, and is to be done by the faculty as inconspicuously as possible.
5. The relative importance of skills development and attitudinal orientation in management education suggests that the Institution offering the program should have some freedom on course development in choosing methods of instruction, and internal assessment within a broad framework of objectives and curriculum structure.
