A Report on “Donation for Society”

On
25th February 2020

Donated by

Submitted by
Prof. Nirmal Sancheti

I/c. Principal
Institute of

Donation :

To donate means to give something — money, goods, or time — to some cause, such as a charity. The word has a more altruistic meaning than does simply "giving"; it suggests that you don't expect anything in return for the contribution.

Importance of Donation :*1. Charity Wakes Up Realization:

Sometimes we make ourselves just a mediocre Office, home and nothing else. Many regular mediocre people who happen to be our donors said that after making the donation they felt a little realization that they are something more than just a mediocre. That's a definite reason and we are quite satisfied.

2. Charity Helps Beat Stress:

Do you know how many people in India suffer from stress? Take a rough guess, 50%? No little higher... 60% of people? No even higher. Well, it's 89% of the total population suffering from stress, a study revealed. That includes many of our donors too and they said since they started making charity, life is less stressful for them.

3. Charity Improves Human Relations:

Not all but some of our donors have actually improved their relations with a lot of people around them i.e., Family, friends, colleagues, etc. Actually, when you make a charity, the important fact is you connect it with a purpose and a person who significantly impacts your life and you tend to feel for the people. Thus improves human relations.

4. Charity Spreads Positivity:

One can't deny a fact that charity indeed brings a wholesome of positivity in life that helps not only you but also the people around you to become a better person and make the world a better place.

There are many more benefits of donation and it is a need of hour. Discussion was carried out in class and student willingly taken initiative for donation. Each student from class, Director sir and other staff members also contributed for this charity.

Student suggested that now summer is going to start and there are many people on the road walking bare feet which very painful. So class and we decided to donate good quality foot wear to needy people. 23 pairs of foot wears are donated on this occasion.

Snehalaya means 'Home of Love', and was founded in 1989 to provide support for women, children and LGBT communities, who have been affected by HIV and AIDS, trafficking, sexual violence, and poverty. We operate in Ahmednagar, a town and district in the agricultural region of Maharashtra, India, and provide services to over 15,000 beneficiaries annually.

We are more than an NGO, we are a strong and passionate family, united in the belief that no one should stand alone. Many of our staff first came to us as beneficiaries to use our services. We understand that resilience - the desire to survive - is an extraordinary force. A sense of belonging and compassion can nurture even the most destitute and fragile people to not just survive, but to thrive in life. We welcome everyone with an open heart and without prejudice.

Vision of Snehalaya - To develop the awareness and capabilities of individuals who have been deprived of their fundamental rights as a result of the inequalities that exist in our society.

Mission of Snehalaya - To provide rescue, rights and rehabilitative services to the communities in most need. To offer a safe exit point to women and their children trapped in the crippling cycle of poverty and abuse.

Diwali Festival in India

Diwali, the festival of lights is indeed the most awaited and the most celebrated festivals of India. People in every nook and cranny of the country welcome the festival with enthusiastic gestures. This wonderful festival is the celebration of five days. On third day of the celebratory occasion the key rituals of the Diwali festival takes place. Lighting of Diyas and candles all around the house, worshipping the Laxmi Ganesha to summon health and wealth and bursting crackers are the chief rituals of the festival.

In addition to that, the exchange of heartfelt gifts during Diwali these days have become a mandatory part of the celebration. Friends, families and colleagues share with each other Diwali gifts as a gesture of showing love and affection. Also, special and grand feast with delicious food that mandatorily includes different varieties of sweets is the special attraction of the occasion.

Diwali Festival and Orphanage

With more and more people preferring to lace their Deepawali celebrations with social concerns, an Institute of Hotel Management and Catering Technology, Ahmednagar also decided to celebrate this Diwali with needy students in the society.

For this social cause we appeal to all members of Institute to donate voluntarily, and we have got very good response from students and staff members.

We would like to share our happiness with the children and have been doing it for a very long time now. Last year we gave them hygiene kits but this year we would be giving them hygiene kits consisting of essentials like soap, toothbrush, tooth paste, hair oil, Talc, etc. and with 2 cans of Sunflower oil (15 lit each) and 10 kg of Bengal gram to two different trust.

Diwali Donation to Snehalaya, Ahmednagar.

Date

Report Submitted by

Prof. PrachiChavan

Throughout history, money has been donated to the needy, as well as food, clothing, tools, bedding etc. These donations were often organized through the Church and it was considered the duty of the wealthier classes and merchants to give to the poor. These days, this generous attitude to giving to the needy is not so well defined. People don't know how to help or how to make sure their donation goes towards the cause and not just to charity operating expenses.

Charitable organizations exist to support and raise funds for a specific group of people. There are numerous charities that support a wide variety of causes such as children in various locations, sufferers of various diseases, homeless people and disadvantaged people at home and overseas. These organizations depend on the generosity of the general community to make donations to charity of money, goods and services, in order that they can carry out their work. Many charities are completely self-funded while others receive some government funding.

Why is it important that we donate to charity? Here are just 5 good reasons:

1. Help other people – there are millions of people in the world who are worse off than we are at any one time. Many of these folk have problems that are not their fault or are beyond their ability to prevent or change. Humans are a social animal and the best way for mankind to advance is by helping those who are unable to help themselves. We have a responsibility to care for other people, to help those less fortunate than ourselves. When we have some spare cash, time or goods, it is an opportunity to help out.

2. Make a difference – donating to charity is the perfect opportunity to make a difference in the world. By making a difference to someone's life, you are leaving behind a legacy. You are making a statement that your life was worthwhile because you made a contribution to society.
3. Feel good – medical and scientific research has proven beyond doubt that giving to other people makes you feel good. The feeling of satisfaction you get when you help someone else is hard to replicate with any other type of activity or endeavor. People who give feel happier, are less anxious and suffer less depression than those who don't. Better health is enjoyed by those who donate their time, expertise or money to others who are in need. Charitable people tend to be able to cope with their own problems more easily than those who don't donate. Giving to others improves your self-esteem, self-confidence and self-worth. This advantage flows into all areas of your life so you will find that you are more confident at work and in social situations.
4. Support a cause you believe in – different charities touch the heart of different people. If you are passionate about something or believe that a certain area is important, you will be able to support that cause by donating to charity. You might be passionate about every child having access to a good education; that nobody should live in poverty in the 21st century; that everyone should be able to experience music or art. Whatever you believe in or are passionate about, you will be able to further the cause through donations to charity.
5. Meet new people – donations to charity give you the opportunity to meet new people and expand your circle of acquaintances. This is especially true when you donate your time or expertise to a worthy cause. While most charitable organizations always need money, many could not operate without an army of volunteers. Whether you give up your time one day a week to serve meals, give a few hours a day to sit with the elderly or travel overseas to help build houses, you will certainly meet many like-minded people along the way. As well as being potential friends, who knows where these new relationships will take you and how these new people might be able to help you in the future?

So shed any doubts you have about why donations to charity are so important and offer your time or money to a cause you believe in. Many other people will benefit but you will also benefit in so many ways.

For this social cause a meeting of all students was conducted in which the importance of donation is explained to students. Then we have explained them that this time we have decided to donate self-fitness kit (tooth paste, tooth brush, hair oil, bath soap, washing soap etc. to the students from orphanage. You can get it packed from your home or you can contribute money as per your wish.

Around 17 gift packing and 2120 rupees were collected and material is purchased from market, gift packing is done by students in the college. Then we have invited Snehalaya team to collect gift from college.

Team of Snehalaya was very happy to see more than 50 gifts from very small college. They have distributed certificates to student for their help. All students were very happy because they have celebrated their Diwali by different way.

Information about Snehalaya –

Snehalaya means 'Home of Love', and was founded in 1989 to provide support for women, children and LGBT communities, who have been affected by HIV and AIDS, trafficking, sexual violence, and poverty. We operate in Ahmednagar, a town and district in the agricultural region of Maharashtra, India, and provide services to over 15,000 beneficiaries annually.

We are more than an NGO, we are a strong and passionate family, united in the belief that no one should stand alone. Many of our staff first came to us as beneficiaries to use our services. We understand that resilience - the desire to survive - is an extraordinary force. A sense of belonging and compassion can nurture even the most destitute and fragile people to not just survive, but to thrive in life. We welcome everyone with an open heart and without prejudice.

Vision of Snehalaya - To develop the awareness and capabilities of individuals who have been deprived of their fundamental rights as a result of the inequalities that exist in our society.

Mission of Snehalaya - To provide rescue, rights and rehabilitative services to the communities in most need. To offer a safe exit point to women and their children trapped in the crippling cycle of poverty and abuse.
